About the Health Professional Shortage Areas (HPSA) Dashboard

The Health Professional Shortage Areas (HPSA) dashboard displays data on the geographic area, population, and facility shortage designations for Primary Care, Dental Health, and Mental Health throughout the U.S.

On this dashboard, you can:

- View a national and state summary of the population in HPSAs, total HPSAs, and practitioners needed
- View the number of shortage designations by HPSA Type, HPSA Score, or Rural Status
- View detailed information of each HPSA by filtering the data

Notes:

1. HPSAs with a status of “Designated” or “Proposed for Withdrawal” are included in the HPSA Count.
2. The Rural Status definitions are provided by Federal Office of Rural Health Policy (FORHP).
3. The dashboard data is updated daily.
